

GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH'S HOME VISITING PROGRAM

Initially funded with $1.68 million in FY2024 to serve 13 counties, DPH's Home Visiting Program expanded to 50 counties in FY 2025 and will grow to include 75 total counties in FY 2026 through additional appropriations. The program provides clinical services to pregnant women with high-risk conditions and their infants.

WHAT DOES THE HOME VISITING PROGRAM OFFER?¹

Maternal Assessments and Screenings

- ✓ Blood pressure checks
- ✓ Screening for pregnancy and postpartum warning signs and symptoms
- ✓ Fetal heart tones
- ✓ Depression

Infant Assessments

- ✓ Feeding
- ✓ Weight
- ✓ Head circumference
- ✓ Developmental screening

SERVICES PARTICIPANTS CAN RECEIVE⁴

- Outreach and enrollment assistance for:
 - WIC
 - SNAP
 - TANF
 - Medicaid
- Transportation assistance
- Local community resources

WHERE ARE SERVICES OFFERED?

■ Current Home Visiting Sites²

■ New Sites Coming in FY 26³

Learn more about Evidence-Based Home Visiting by visiting tinyurl.com/VoicesFSEBHV

SCAN BELOW TO SEE
FACTSHEET CITATIONS

REFERENCES FOR GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH'S HOME VISITING PROGRAM

- 1 Georgia Department of Public Health. DPH Home Visiting Program. Accessed July 29, 2025 from <https://dph.georgia.gov/healthy-pregnancy/dph-home-visiting-program>.
- 2 Ibid.
- 3 Ibid.
- 4 Voices for Georgia's Children. Home Visiting Pilot One Pager. Retrieved July 29, 2025 from https://024d2608-0225-4a65-9e75-25d868da6eb4.usrfiles.com/ugd/024d26_ddf87fd4b22842529066a0235f53b647.pdf.